KHALIL

Excuse me, everyone—my name is Khalil, and I'm with Detroit United. We've been hitting the entire community, every business, talking to as many people as possible about these outrageous rent spikes. This isn't just a price increase—it's a takeover. And if we don't do something now, we're all getting pushed out.

ANTHONY

Oh yeah? And what exactly are y'all planning to do about it?

KHALIL

We're organizing a town hall meeting. so we can make the owner of CC Capital come look us in our face and demand he lower the rent!

Crystal

Look, I hear you little Malcom X, But why would some rich guy come down here and do what we say? Because we're having a meeting?

KHALIL

A meeting is how you start a movement. CC Capital is betting on us being too distracted to fight back—but if we come together, make enough noise, they won't have a choice but to listen. They expect us to roll over, but if every business owner, every person who lives in this community shows up. We become a problem they can't ignore. And if they still don't listen? Then we take it to the city and make sure they do.
